

“Our piety must aim at the essential, going to the core of great truths of faith without limiting ourselves to some pious practices; it should be a piety that is well founded and sustained by the liturgy and following thus the teaching of the Church, the teacher of truth and worship. Holy Mass with Divine Office is the nucleus of our life of piety, the essential nucleus that should not be overwhelmed by particular devotions. Jesus, His most holy Soul, be the basic devotion that keeps us directed to God” (Luigia Tincani, 1942).
