

“Study, the means of conquering the truth, is an instrument to reach God even through profane truths, that are participation and reflection of the eternal Truth; it is an act of worship for us” (Luigia Tincani, 1935).